Judy Anderson. Judy and her husband, Jamie, both grew up in Niagara Region and both learned to ski at Lookout. They lived in Ancaster for 30 years, but recently came back to this area to be with family. Judy is a Principal with Halton Catholic District School Board and she is about to retire in a few weeks at the end of this school year. Judy has enjoyed casual golf over the years at a variety of courses while raising two girls who are now adults. As retirement nears, Judy has more time more time to focus on improving her golf game and she is exploring many interests and hobbies. Judy says she is enjoying the friendly community at Lookout already and she looks forward to more.

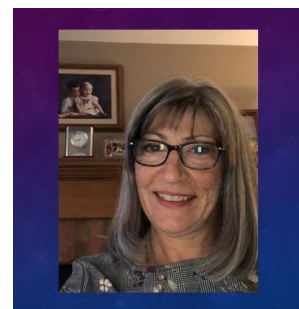

Sharon Boyd - Sharon is originally from Chatham, Ontario, a small farm town. She and her husband moved to Fonthill from Hamilton in October 2019, hoping to escape the hustle and bustle of the city. Sharon's husband has been retired for four years but she still works part-time as a buyer and merchandise manager at Hamilton Golf & C.C. Sharon feels so fortunate to be able to work and play at such a world class facility. Sharon has been golfing off and on for about 35 years, but she hopes to play more frequently now. Besides sports, Sharon enjoys music, wine and cooking, not necessarily in that order. She also hopes to get back to Masters Level swimming, which she has done for the past 15 years. Sharon and her husband have a son, a daughter, and a grandson.

Sharron Thompson - Although new to Lookout, Sharron is not new to Fonthill. She lived here 35 years ago. Because she always loved Niagara, she returned "home" four years ago after spending time in Indiana, Ancaster, and Shanty Bay near Barrie. Sharron took up golf 15 years ago, but she was busy with kids' activities and life in general, so didn't get to play very often until last summer when she dusted off the clubs and took up the game again. Sharron wants to get better at golf and wants to have a great time trying. In her working life, Sharron ran her own home decorating business, Yunique Reflections. She was the interior and exterior decorator for a community of 65 homes near Barrie, Ontario. In addition to golf, Sharron likes gardening, reading, walking, and baking, and is back knitting after 30 years off. She also loves a good glass of wine. Sharron's husband, Steve, and son Patrick are also new Lookout members. Sharon and Steve have two other children, Lindsay and Blake.

Sandra Shynal - Sandra is not new to Lookout. She was a member of the club from 1983-1985 while attending university. In June of 2018, Sandra retired from a 36-year career in teaching and now she is ready to take up golf again. Her goal is to feel comfortable with her golf game. She hopes to carry her clubs and walk the golf course for as long as she possibly can. Sandra loves sports, gardening, and music. In fact, she plays guitar and is currently learning to play piano. Sandra and husband Allan, who has been a member of LOPCC since 1973 have a daughter, a son, and an adorable one-year-old granddaughter in Michigan. They are, of course, anxiously waiting for a chance to visit her again.

April Huxley - April was a member at Lookout for many years, but unfortunately had to quit golf in 2010 due to rheumatoid arthritis. Thankfully, she is now able to manage her arthritis with medication and daily workouts at the gym. April feels these two things have been a lifesaver for her. Right now, to get back to golf, April intends to play 9 holes once a week with her husband and see how that goes. She looks forward to seeing old friends and meeting new ones. April is happily retired. She finished her career as Superintendent of Heritage Resources, responsible for the administration and management of the Niagara Parks Commission's historic sites and properties. April and her husband are proud "dog parents" of a very spoiled two-year-old toy poodle named Maddy, so named after the character in Bemelman's "Madeline" series.

Marlene Soucy - Marlene has lived in the Niagara Region her whole life, and in Fonthill since 2002. She has been playing golf for 4 years as a member of Sparrow/Cardinal Lakes. She joined Lookout to play more golf with her boyfriend, and to participate in ladies and club events. She thinks that Lookout is a beautiful and challenging course and wanted to join previously but felt she wasn't a good enough golfer. Marlene admits that she is quite addicted to golf. She takes lessons, wants to play in as many tournaments as possible, and hopes to lower her index by 6 points this season. Marlene also enjoys the social aspect of golf, having met many nice individuals while playing. She likes to escape Niagara winters to play golf in Florida. Marlene works at Superior Auto Sales in St. Catharines. She has been in the car business since she was 15 and has managed for both the Cullen group and Autopark.

Patricia Neill - Pat is a returning member of Lookout from the 1990's. She also plays at Cardinal Lakes.
